

Diverse Voices Challenge Key Elements of the FCC's SET-TOP BOX MANDATE

Growing list of groups voice a variety of significant concerns, including higher consumer bills, less diverse programming, and an invasion of consumer privacy.

190+

Members of Congress

Including Bipartisan Members of Congress; over half of the House Democratic Caucus and 54 members of the Congressional Tri-Caucus.

18

Creative Community Groups

Including: A2IM, Copyright Alliance, Creative Future, Directors Guild of America, IFTA, MPAA, RIAA

14

TV Programmers

Including: 21st Century Fox, Viacom, TVOne, C-SPAN, Revolt, VMe TV, Crossings TV

35

Diversity & Civil Justice Groups

Including: Rainbow PUSH Coalition, LULAC, National Black Chamber of Commerce, LGBT Tech Partnership, National Urban League

21

Grassroots Organizations

Including: Digital Citizens Alliance, Americans for Tax Reform

25

Tech Businesses & Organizations

Including: Roku, NAM, Small Business & Entrepreneurship Council, U.S. Chamber of Commerce, Cisco

More than

1.8M

Labor Community Members

Represented by unions opposing the mandate, including: IBEW, CWA, DGA, IATSE, SAG-AFTRA

More than

300K

Consumers

Concerned U.S. citizens from all 50 states and Washington, D.C.